

Customized Datasheet

Get all the price data you follow in one place with our tailored content offer.

EmergingTextiles.com provides a comprehensive view of textile fiber and yarn prices in both international and domestic markets.

As our database has grown, retrieving the needed information has become increasingly challenging for subscribers. Navigating through numerous pages, tables, and CSV files can be cumbersome and time-consuming, increasing the risk of errors.

Customized Database Table

Setting Up Your Table

After subscribing, you can select the products you're interested in from our extensive list of available prices. You can also add or remove products from your list at any time during your subscription period. This set of data is available in CSV format and can be transmitted to your entire group of companies. Additionally, it can be seamlessly integrated into your database through our API.

Fees

Our customized table is included in the Corporate Subscription, which offer a full access to our content, allowing access for up to 10 collaborators from the same company or organization.

Corporate Subscription: 4,000 US$ per year
